Application for Extension of Time To File an Exempt Organization Return

▶ File a separate application for each return.

- If you are filing for an Automatic 3-Month Extension, complete only Part I and check this box X
- If you are filing for an Additional (Not Automatic) 3-Month Extension, complete only Part II (on page 2 of this form).

Do not complete Part II unless you have already been granted an automatic 3-month extension on a previously filed Form 8868.

Electronic filing (e-file) - You can electronically file Form 8868 if you need a 3-month automatic extension of time to file (6 months for a corporation required to file Form 990-T), or an additional (not automatic) 3-month extension of time. You can electronically file Form 8868 to request an extension of time to file any of the forms listed in Part I or Part II with the exception of Form 8870, Information Return for Transfers Associated With Certain Personal Benefit Contracts, which must be sent to the IRS in paper format (see instructions). For more details on the electronic filing of this form, visit www.irs.gov/efile and click on e-file for Charities & Nonprofits.

Part I Automatic 3-Month Extension of Time. Only submit original (no copies needed).

A corporation required to file Form 990-T and requesting an automatic 6-month extension - check this box and complete Part I only

All other corporations (including 1120-C filers), partnerships, REMICs, and trusts must use Form 7004 to request an extension of time to file income tax returns.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a, Program Service Accomplishments:

Youth Counselors receive comprehensive training, thoughtful feedback, opportunities to take-on greater responsibility, and ongoing support throughout their 10 week summer employment program. During the 2012-13 program year, 214 urban youth (unduplicated), 13-18 years old, participated in the 2012 Camp Sunrise Summer Program and/or fall, winter and spring activities (a total of 2,291 units of service).

YouthLEAD (Youth Leadership, Education, & Diversity) operates year round and provides follow-up services to Camp Sunrise alumni, maintains the multicultural friendships that were started at camp, and involves urban youth through monthly educational, cultural, and social activities. YouthLEAD also facilitates Youth Advisory Council, Community Service Stars, and Employment Training Seminars. The

Community Service Stars (CS Stars) component provided meaningful summer or school year jobs for 58 Minneapolis and St. Paul youth, 14-18 years old, from diverse ethnic, cultural and racial backgrounds. CS Star crew members received an average of 45-50 hours of training or career exploration including intercultural communication, conflict resolution skills, and visits to college campuses and local companies. During the 2012-13 program year, 150 youth (unduplicated) participated in 286

YouthLEAD activities (a total of 2,186 units of service).

The Young Women's Mentoring Program is a community based multicultural youth mentoring and development program focused on building the women, 6-18 years old, living in low-income public housing communities.

This multi-level mentoring program provides key guidance and support to girls and young women by utilizing team, group and one-on-one inter-generational and peer mentoring relationships. During the 2012-13 program year, 172 girls and young women (unduplicated), 6-18 years old, participated in 616 program activities (a total of 2,456 units of service).

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11: YouthCARE gathers the necessary information for the completion of the Form 990. The form was prepared by YouthCARE's accounting firm. Drafts of the form were reviewed by the Executive Director and presented to the board of directors prior to filing the return. Each board member was provided a copy of the Form 990 prior to filing.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c: A Conflict of Interest Statement is completed annually by all Officers, Directors and Key employees. The statements are reviewed initially by the Executive Director and the Board Chair. Potential conflicts, if any, are then reviewed by the Executive Committee. If a conflict arises the parties involved are expected to bring it to the attention of the Board of Directors and are restricted from discussion and voting on related matters.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15a: The YouthCARE Board of Directors has the authority to delegate responsibility for maintaining the daily operations of the organization to an Executive Director. One of the most important responsibilities of the Board, then, is to select, supervise, and determine a compensation package that will attract and retain a qualified chief executive. YouthCARE's policy requires the full Board to evaluate the performance and approve the compensation of the chief executive annually and in advance of any change in compensation.

The Board is responsible for hiring and establishing the compensation of the Executive Director and for approving the compensation range of other persons in a position to exercise substantial control of the organization's resources. It is the responsibility of the Executive Director to hire and set the compensation of other staff, consistent with reasonable compensation guidelines set by the Board. The Personnel Committee should also review the overall compensation program, including salary ranges and benefits provided for particular types of positions, to assess whether the compensation program is fair, reasonable, and sufficient to attract and retain high-quality staff.

The Executive Committee has the primary responsibility to set the compensation and review the performance of the Executive Director, and should report its findings and recommendations to the full Board for approval and provide any board member with details, upon request. The Board should then document the basis for its decision in the regular board minutes, and be prepared to answer questions about it.

When determining the reasonableness of the compensation package paid to the chief executive, the Board should ensure that the individuals involved in making the compensation recommendation, including consultants, do not have a conflict of interest with regard to the executive. The Board should seek objective external data to support its compensation decisions. The Board or its committee should examine the compensation paid by similarly situated organizations, both taxable and non-taxable, for functionally comparable positions. YouthCARE conducts a biannual compensation and benefits survey, which is useful in evaluating compensation. The Board or its committee may also turn to compensation surveys compiled by independent firms or actual written offers from similar organizations competing for the executive's services.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19: The Annual Report and Audited Financial Statements are available on the organization's website. Other documents, including governing documents and the conflict of interest policy are available upon request.
